

September – December 2267

“Value Judgments”

“Tried and True”

“War Story”

“The Walls of Hell”

(2012 Editor’s Note: Three completed Crusade teleplays and a partially written outline were discovered since Terry Jones last revised this database. Given the dearth of temporal data within the teleplays, I’ve inserted the stories based on data from JMS.)

October 2267

Earthforce Intelligence place their agent Eric Jensen aboard the Excalibur during the standard crew rotation, to monitor the situation after the destruction of one of the Shadow hybrid vessels.

Two months prior to End of the Line.

December 2267

Simon Burke comes to Babylon 5 to work in the security division.

The Lost Tales: Voices in the Dark. Burke came to the station four years ago.

The Excalibur’s computer, monitoring for the coded signal transmitted from the Shadow hybrid vessel, detects another transmission and warns Captain Gideon. Enlisting Galen’s help from his flyer, he too begins tracking the signal.

Just prior to End of the Line.

“End of the Line”

2268

“Little Bugs Have Lesser Bugs”

(2012 Editor’s Note: JMS has stated that “Little Bugs Have Lesser Bugs” would have aired early in Crusade’s second season.)

On Minbar, Alisa Beldon is bestowed with the title of True Seeker. It becomes her honored duty to help others.

True Seeker. The title was bestowed a year ago.

2267 “Value Judgments”

Excalibur visits Tarriff’s Colony, and there they encounter Bester. In exchange for his help, they help Bester to escape.

An unproduced episode.

Dureena is interrogated by her mentor, Mafeek.

An unproduced episode.

“To the Ends of the Earth”

Almost two months since the new uniforms (red and grey) arrived, an “accident” in the ship’s laundry destroys them. The Excalibur encounters a hybrid Shadow vessel. (About September 2)

An unproduced episode.

“War Story”

The Excalibur engages a Drakh fleet while escorting the Chaumont to Savo 4. After the battle, Dureena is kidnaped by an alien vessel. (Added by editor, 2012)

An unproduced episode.

“The Walls of Hell”

The Excalibur pursues Dureena’s captors and Matheson is briefly possessed by the Apocalypse Box. (Added by editor, 2012)

An unproduced episode.

“The End of the Line”

Excalibur and Galen track the Hybrid ship back to its base, an EA research base. The techno-mage/Shadow connection is revealed. Gideon takes the whole story back to Mars where he is shot in a cliffhanger. (September 3)

An unproduced episode.

2268 “Little Bugs Have Lesser Bugs”

The Excalibur crew discover a deceased Drakh in orbit around a planet populated entirely by bugs. (Added by editor, 2012)

An unproduced season two episode.
